FISKE & BEEM.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

Superb Lines of Choice New Goods. Bargains in all lines.

The most interesting holiday sale now in progress is that at H. J. Gillen's where the lines of general goods and specialties presented for this season at a special scale of prices merits more than a passing notice.

That superb line of black and colored silks remains unbroken in spite of the truly immense sales of these goods during the past few weeks, and is notable as offering the greatest opportunity for making a present of a silk dress to be found in the city.

The cloak stock includes an arrival of some 50 seal plushes at prices ranging from $20 to $60, which are considered the greatest bargains ever offered. The general cloak stock as a whole includes all desirable and fashionable garments for children, misses and ladies, and having been replenished from last week's shattered condition in sizes and styles is now in as complete condition as at the commencement of the season, while prices cannot be credited by any who have not examined the goods. In this connection attention is called to the shawl stock, containing something extremely choice in fine beavers, Paisleys, as well as a full line of woolen goods in all the new colors.

Special bargains in blankets in white, scarlet, blue, pink, as well as something very choice in grey mixed. Prices very low, remember.

SPECIAL FANCY HOLIDAY STOCK.

This includes an entirely new stock of novelties in the way of hoods, nubbies, scarfs, silk mufflers, silk handkerchiefs, &c., &c., which is considered the largest stock of them ever opened in this city by far. The special line of holiday novelties has been more or less neglected (generally more) in the past at GILLEN'S, but this year the stock has been very carefully (and, we think buyers will admit, justifiably) selected with reference to the needs of the season; and while the stock is practically unlimited as to size it will also be found largely on all those articles suitable for holiday presents, by calling at GILLEN'S. Our space is so limited this week that we cannot dwell on the great merits of the holiday advantages offered by this house; but can and do heartily advise all our readers to call there before buying.

Bargains in overcoats next week at Oak Hall.

Wanted for the holidays, 400 neatly dressed chickens and turkeys at McMULLEN'S.

Burke Bros.

Remember that one of the leading grocery houses in the city is that of Burke Bros. Their stock of goods for the holidays is immensely large and of the best stock in the market. In prices they will not be undersold.

The great cut in the price of dress goods and silks has commenced at Scott Bros. & Co's.

All wool 42-in. home spun dress goods reduced from 75 to 35c.

All wool fine Boucle cloths, worth $1.50, now reduced to 75c.

$2.25 Jersey silks, all colors and black, now only 87 1/2c.

A job lot of 50c dress goods now for 25c. Our dress goods and silk stocks must be reduced before Christmas; this is the reason for these low prices.

SCOTT BROS. & CO.

Boys' and children's suits and overcoats, prices reduced at Oak Hall.

Santa Claus

Phelan has the largest stock of toys in the city, and those out buying their Christmas gifts for the little ones should not forget him. It is the only toy house in the city, and there is a great variety of presents there suitable for the little ones. This house carries a large stock of holiday goods, and will sell as low as this line of goods can be purchased anywhere. Give Phelan a call and buy some little toy to make glad the hearts of your little ones; also take home some of his home-made candy—15 cents per pound.

The ladies of the West Serena M. E. Church will give an oyster supper in the basement of their church Friday evening, Dec. 18. All are cordially invited to attend.

The Attraction

is nearly all centered on C. M. Forbes' drug and book store. The reason is that this place is completely jammed with holiday goods for Christmas and New Year's presents for the hundreds of little and old people of Ottawa and vicinity. Holiday presents this year are further in advance in their wonderful mechanism and variety than last year. At this house you will find alphabetical, historical and picturesque books, toys, &c., for the little toddlers, and books, albums (plain and plush), scrap books, toilet sets, cut glass bottles, easels, picture frames, and many other things for the elders. Go to C. M. Forbes'.

The Ladies' Society of the South Ottawa Presbyterian Church will hold a fair for the benefit of the church on Thursday and Friday afternoons and evenings, December 17 and 18, at the church. Season ticket 25 cts., single admission 10 cts. All are cordially invited.

E. J. Colwell's is the only place in town where candy is made hourly. Try them.

Mr. Bruner, at White's Hotel will pay cash for good horses, from 4 years old upwards. Will be there Wednesday and Saturday, Dec. 16th and 19th.

An elegant line of Prang's Christmas cards at E. Y. Griggs'.

A Pink Tea will be held at the residence of Chas. J. Skinner on Tuesday evening, Dec. 15th, for the benefit of the Ladies' Society of the South Ottawa Presbyterian Church. All are cordially invited.

Hats and caps. All the new designs in head coverings. Neat, comfortable and desirable. Interior prices for superior goods will make this stock move off rapidly. Investigate. M. STIEFEL.

LOU PIERGUE'S.

A Beautiful Display.

Purchasers will find one of the largest and most complete line of holiday goods in the county at Hapeman & Graham's. The stock consists of, in books, the finest ever brought to this city and at prices below those given by publishers. There are books of all description, in sets, juvenile histories, the classics, illustrated books, histories, biographies, books of travel, art goods, bronzes, engravings, frames; a large stock of toys—in fact the display of holiday goods by this firm is well worth an inspection by all. Those in search of suitable presents for the holidays should not fail to call on Hapeman & Graham.

Photos.

Wheeler, the photographer, would call the attention of his customers and the general public to the fact that they should give in their orders soon for their holiday pictures. Only a few more days left.
